Reliable Packaging Distribution for Agriculture & Retail

Logic Line is a trusted packaging distribution company serving agricultural producers and retailers across South Africa, Eswatini (Swaziland), and Mozambique.

Established in 2010, the company has grown from humble beginnings into a respected industry partner known for dependable supply, quality packaging solutions, and long-term customer relationships.

In 2020, Gerrit and Kabous Engelbrecht took ownership of the business, continuing its strong legacy of service excellence. With deep roots in the Mpumalanga Lowveld, they understand the practical demands of agriculture and retail. This hands-on industry knowledge enables Logic Line to deliver tailored packaging solutions that meet real operational needs — from farm to shelf.

Our Commitment

At Logic Line, we believe packaging is more than protection — it is a critical part of your supply chain and brand presentation.

Our solutions are designed to:

-  Protect produce from harvest to shelf
-  Improve handling and transport efficiency
-  Enhance brand visibility through custom branding
-  Support sustainable, cost-effective operations

Our Mission

To help you protect your harvest, strengthen your brand, and deliver your products to market in peak condition.
